

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

STEPHEN JEROME WILLIAMS,

Plaintiff,

vs.

LARRY SMALL, et al.,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 09cv1957-MMA (RBB)

ORDER RE: INFORMAL REQUEST FOR STATUS UPDATE

[Doc. No. 43]

On January 1, 2011, Plaintiff Stephen Jerome Williams, a state inmate currently incarcerated at Calipatria State Prison, located in Calipatria, California, proceeding pro se, submitted a motion for reconsideration pursuant to Civil Local Rule 7.1(i) and for leave to file an amended complaint pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a). See Doc. No. 41. Plaintiff requested the Court reconsider its November 3, 2010 order granting Defendants' motion to dismiss and allow leave to amend those claims for relief previously dismissed with prejudice and without leave to amend. For the reasons stated in the Court's February 14, 2011 Order, the Court granted in part and denied in part Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration. See Doc. No. 42. Because the Court granted Plaintiff further leave to amend, the Court declined to accept his proposed third amended complaint for filing and instead allowed Plaintiff an additional thirty (30) days in which to file a third amended complaint that complied with the terms and conditions stated in the Court's February 14, 2011 Order.

1 To date, Plaintiff has not filed a third amended complaint. On August 11, 2011, Plaintiff
2 submitted an informal request for a status update on his motion for reconsideration. See Doc. No.
3 43. According to Plaintiff, he “is unaware of the status of the pending Application and Motion, and
4 as a California State Prisoner proceeding pro se, I am unable to call the Court, or log on to the
5 Court’s website to check on the status of the Application and Motion.” Plaintiff goes on to state that
6 he is “concerned whether the Court has in fact received the aforementioned Application and
7 Motion” because “there have been instances in the past where prison staff have either lost or failed
8 to process an inmate’s legal mail . . .”

9 Based on Plaintiff’s submission, and because his current mailing address is slightly different
10 from the address on record in February, the Court concludes that it is indeed likely that Plaintiff did
11 not receive his courtesy copy via U.S. mail of the Court’s February 14, 2011 Order. The Court
12 therefore instructs the Clerk of Court to attach a copy of the Order [Doc. No. 42] hereto, and mail
13 both documents to Plaintiff at his corrected address, which has been updated on the docket of the 14 case.

15 Furthermore, the Court grants Plaintiff an additional thirty (30) days from the date this 16 Order is filed in which to submit a third amended complaint that complies with the terms and 17 conditions stated in the Court’s February 14, 2011 Order.

18 IT IS SO ORDERED.
